Reference information: ATS Standard 7.3.9

Policy:

Students have a right to appeal to ATS on matters of Standards' violations.

Administrative Procedures:

Knox College is a fully accredited member school of the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). The ATS has accrediting standards by which Knox College is guided and which Knox College meets. A copy of the ATS Standards is available in the Caven Library or from the Registrar.

Students who wish to issue a complaint related to ATS accrediting standards (section 7.3.9) need to put their complaint in writing. Basic Degree Students need to forward their complaint to the Director of Academic Programs. Advanced Degree Students need to forward their complaint to the Director of Academic Programs.

A reply will be given in writing within 2 months. If the student is not satisfied, they should inform the Association of Theological Schools, 10 Summit Park Drive, Pittsburgh, PA, U.S.A., 15275-1103.
