Course Number: KNB6361HS
 Course Format: In-class
 Course Name: Ancient Israel: History, Culture, and Context
 Course Location: Knox College, 23 King’s College Circle, Room 4
 Class Times: Class: Wednesdays, 11:00am–1:00pm
 Prerequisites: an introductory course in Old Testament; two or more semesters of Biblical Hebrew

A. Course Description and Student Learning Goals

This course presents an overview of the geography and history of Israel and its place in the ancient Near East from the emergence of Israel in Canaan to the beginning of the Roman period. Students will also be introduced to the major issues relating to historiography. This course is an ideal way to acquire a broad context for further work in biblical studies.

Graduate Level

Each graduate program has detailed statements of “degree level expectations” (goals and outcomes) found in the respective program Handbooks. The harmonized course goals and outcomes (below) describe the level of knowledge and skill that will be characteristic of a typical graduate of the program. Instructors are required to develop a statement of learning outcomes for each course. These outcomes will provide benchmarks for course evaluation/grading and program assessment. Doctoral students are typically required to demonstrate higher levels of ability or expertise.

Course Outcomes	Course Element	Programme Outcomes
By the end of this course, the student will:	This outcome will be achieved through these course elements:	This course outcome corresponds to these aspects of TST’s statements of outcomes (PhD, ThM I & II; MA outcomes are not yet available)

B. Course Resources

Required Texts

Required texts are available at Crux Theological Books located at Wycliffe College.

- A modern translation of the Bible (e.g., NRSV, RSV, TNIV, NIV, NJPS, NET, or NASB). The NET Bible offers extensive textual notes and is available for use online or as a free download from www.bible.org. The NJPS (Tanakh) is a translation of the Hebrew Bible by the best in Jewish Biblical scholarship. As such, it provides a helpful complement to any of the standard Christian translations. For some readings, students will need to have access to a Bible containing the Apocrypha.
- Arnold, Bill T., and Brent A. Strawn. The World around the Old Testament: The People and Places of the Ancient Near East. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker, 2016. [WAOT]
- Monson, James M. Regions on the Run: Introductory Map Studies in the Land of the Bible. Rockford, IL: Biblical Backgrounds, 1998 + package of seven maps. Available for purchase from www.bibback.com [ROTR]
- Lancaster, Steven P., and James M. Monson. Regional Study Guide: Introductory Map Studies in the Land of the Bible. 3rd ed. Rockford, IL: Biblical Backgrounds, 2007. Marking guide available as a free download from www.bibback.com. [RSG]
- Rainey, Anson F., and R. Steven Notley. Carta's New Century Handbook and Atlas of the Bible. Jerusalem: Carta, 2007. [NCHAB]

Recommended Texts

- For resources directly related to the study of ancient Israel, see the bibliography at the end of this syllabus.
- Collins, Billie Jean, Bob Buller, and John F. Kutsko, eds. The SBL Handbook of Style: For Biblical Studies and Related Disciplines. 2nd ed. Atlanta, GA: SBL Press, 2014.
An academic style guide based generally on Turabian and used by the Journal of Biblical Literature. Includes extensive lists of abbreviations related to biblical studies. A recommended purchase for those who plan to continue to do advanced work in biblical studies.
- Long, V. Philips, ed. Israel's Past in Present Research: Essays on Ancient Israelite Historiography. Sources for Biblical and Theological Studies. Winona Lake, IN: Eisenbrauns, 1999. [IPPR]
- Turabian, Kate L. A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations. Chicago Guides to Writing, Editing, and Publishing, ed. John Grossman and Alice Bennett. 6th ed. Chicago, IL; London: University of Chicago Press, 1996.
The academic style used by most North American colleges. It has much in common with the larger Chicago Manual of Style which may be consulted for items that Turabian omits. See also the online guide at: <http://www.writing.utoronto.ca/advice/using-sources/documentation>.

Course Website

Blackboard <https://weblogin.utoronto.ca>

This course uses Blackboard for its course website. For information on how to access this course on Blackboard, and how to perform basic Blackboard tasks do the following:

- a) Go to <http://portal.utoronto.ca> and click on the Log-in to the Portal button.
- b) Enter your UTORid and password
- c) On the page that opens, look for the My Courses module, where you'll find the link to the website for all your Blackboard-based courses.

(Your course registration with ROSI gives you access to the course website at Blackboard.) Note also the information at <http://www.portalinfo.utoronto.ca/content/information-students>. Students who experience trouble accessing Blackboard should visit <http://help.ic.utoronto.ca/category/5/blackboard--portal.html> for further help.

C. Evaluation

The class consists of a single two-hour session each week. On some occasions, a portion of class may be devoted to work in small groups. Small group discussions will be based on assigned readings or an exercise given by the Instructor. Other assignments are outlined below. Grading follows the TST grade scale found below in, “G. Toronto School of Theology Grading Scale and Standards.”

The final grade for this course will be based on evaluation in six areas:

1. Mapping Assignments (30%). Students should work on this assignment throughout the semester. Due session 12. Details to follow in class.
2. Research Paper Proposal (5%). Students will submit a 2–3 page statement about a topic of interest that they would like to examine in their final Research Paper (see below). The assignment should include a clear statement of the research question, followed by a statement of why it is of interest and a preliminary statement of what the student thinks they might discover or learn. The student should include five sources that they think they might consult. This assignment does not commit the student to the topic, but is intended as a first step to stimulate early thinking. Due session 5.
3. Israel in the Ancient Near East History Chart (15%). Drawing on material found in the course readings and other texts, students shall produce a chart giving an overview of ancient Near Eastern history from 1200–333 BCE. Emphasis should be Israel and the surrounding cultures and where relevant should include reference to important primary sources. Due session 7.
4. Research Presentation (10%). Students will present a synopsis of their developing research to their fellow students in a seminar format. This will be scheduled as a special session outside of the normal class meeting. Due: weeks of sessions 8–10.
5. Research Paper and Presentation (30%). A 15–20 page paper on a topic to be decided in consultation with the instructor. Students are advised to select and begin work on their paper as early as possible in the semester. Students are required to meet with the professor by session five to discuss their topic and available resources. Evaluation will be based on written clarity and organisation, ability to follow assignment instructions, argumentation, degree of insight, and judicious use of primary and secondary sources. A completed Assignment Checklist (see Supplement) must accompany your final paper. Your paper must be submitted both in paper and electronic form. Due: Session 12.
6. Participation & Required Readings (10%). This element of the course grade will take into account factors such as readings completed, attendance, participation in class etc. Students shall submit by email or hard copy a statement of the percentage of required readings that they completed. Due session 12.

Late work. Graduate Degree students are expected to hand in assignments by the date given in the course outline. The penalty for late work is 4% deducted per week late (2% off per half week). This penalty is not applied to students with medical or compassionate difficulties; students facing such difficulties are kindly requested to consult with their committee chair, who should make a recommendation on the matter to the instructor. The absolute deadline for the course is the final day of exam week. Students who for exceptional reasons (e.g., a death in the family or a serious illness) are unable to complete work by this date may request an extension (SDF = “standing deferred”) beyond the term. An SDF must be requested from the registrar’s office in the student’s college of registration no later than the last day of classes in which the course is taken. The SDF, when approved, will have a mutually agreed upon deadline that does not extend beyond the conclusion of the following term. If a student has not completed work but has not been granted an SDF, a final mark will be submitted calculating a zero for work not submitted.

Course grades. Consistently with the policy of the University of Toronto, course grades submitted by an instructor are reviewed by a committee of the instructor’s college before being posted. Course grades may be adjusted where they do not comply with University grading policy (<http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/policies/grading.htm>) or college grading policy.

Use of Turnitin.com. Where specified in the syllabus, students will be required to submit their course essays or other major written assignments to Turnitin.com for a review of textual similarity and detection of possible plagiarism. In doing so, students will allow their essays to be included as source documents in the Turnitin.com reference database, where they will be used solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism. The terms that apply to the University's use of the Turnitin.com service are described on the Turnitin.com web site. Students who have principled objections to the use of this service should see the course instructor during the first two weeks of the course to arrange an alternative. Typically, this will involve submitting drafts of the assignment at regular intervals throughout the semester. If one is using the Turnitin service, then during the first week of the course, students should look at the "Set Up" and "Originality Check" instructions found at the following link: www.turnitin.com/en_us/training/student-training, and follow the instructions to create a user profile. The course ID and password will be distributed to students via Blackboard during the first week of the course.

D. Course Policies & Information

Policies for courses are contained in the TST Basic Degree Handbook and the Knox Student Handbook. See further, the Syllabus Supplement available from the class Blackboard page. In particular, please note the following:

Accessibility. Students with a disability or health consideration, whether temporary or permanent, are entitled to accommodation. Students in conjoint degree programs must register at the University of Toronto's Accessibility Services offices; information is available at <http://www.accessibility.utoronto.ca/>. The sooner a student seeks accommodation, the quicker we can assist.

Plagiarism Policy: Students submitting written material in courses are expected to provide full documentation for sources of both words and ideas in footnotes or endnotes. Direct quotations should be placed within quotation marks. (If small changes are made in the quotation, they should be indicated by appropriate punctuation such as brackets and ellipses, but the quotation still counts as a direct quotation.) Failure to document borrowed material constitutes plagiarism, which is a serious breach of academic, professional, and Christian ethics. An instructor who discovers evidence of student plagiarism is not permitted to deal with the situation individually but is required to report it to the Knox Director of Academic Programmes. For details, see the TST Basic Degree Handbook and the Graduate program Handbooks (linked from <http://www.tst.edu/academic/resources-forms/handbooks>) and the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters (<http://www.adfg.utoronto.ca/Assets/ADFG+Digital+Assets/Code+of+Behaviour+on+Academic+Matters+!5bAugust+18!2c+1995!5d+Updated+July+1!2c+2016.pdf>). A student who plagiarizes in this course will be assumed to have read the document "Avoidance of plagiarism in theological writing" published by the Graham Library of Trinity and Wycliffe Colleges http://www.trinity.utoronto.ca/Library_Archives/Theological_Resources/Tools/Guides/plag.htm.

Other academic offences. TST students come under the jurisdiction of the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters <http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/policies/behaveac.htm>.

Back-up copies. Please make back-up copies of essays before handing them in.

Obligation to check email. At times, the course instructor may decide to send out important course information by email. To that end, all students in conjoint programs are required to have a valid utoronto email address. Students must have set up their utoronto email address which is entered in the ACORN system. Information is available at <http://www.utorid.utoronto.ca/>. The course instructor will not be able to help you with this. For help with your UTORid and password or other technological issues the following options are available: email help.desk@utoronto.ca; phone 416-978-HELP; or visit the Help Desk at the Information Commons at Robarts Library.

Students should check utoronto email regularly for messages about the course. Forwarding your utoronto.ca email to a Hotmail, Gmail, Yahoo or other type of email account is not advisable. In some cases, messages from utoronto.ca addresses sent to Hotmail, Gmail or Yahoo accounts are filtered as junk mail, which means that emails from your course instructor may end up in your spam or junk mail folder. Students in non-conjoint programs should contact the Registrar of their college of registration.

Email communication with the course instructor. The instructor aims to respond to email communications from students in a timely manner. All email communications from students in conjoint programs should be sent from a utoronto email address. Email communications from other email addresses are not secure, and also the instructor cannot readily identify them as being legitimate emails from students. The instructor is not obliged to respond to email from non-utoronto addresses for students in conjoint programs. Students in non-conjoint programs should only use the email address they have provided to their college of registration.

Use of Technology. Laptops and other computing devices may be used in the classroom for note taking purposes only. The use of the internet is not permitted while class is in session unless it is part of a specific class activity. Students wishing to text message, search for images, fact check etc. should do so during the break or outside of class. Much of the learning that goes on in the classroom is founded upon mutual disclosure that takes place between the instructor and the student and between students. Parties outside of that learning community have not committed themselves to this relationship of trust. For this and other reasons, permission to record lectures in audio format is granted for use by registered students only. Video recording is not permitted without the written permission of the instructor. Recordings and notes of class lectures may not be electronically reproduced, posted or distributed without the written permission of the instructor.

Attendance: 80% attendance at a lecture course is required for credit.

Style Guidelines for Papers: see, Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations and Collins, Buller, and Kutsko, The SBL Handbook of Style: For Biblical Studies and Related Disciplines.

G. Toronto School of Theology Grading Scale and Standards

The following chart presents the standard used for assessment in this course. It is included in the interests of transparency and to assist students in self-appraisal. If you wish to discuss an assignment to be submitted or a grade that has been received, please feel free to make an appointment with the instructor.
